

Prof. Dr.-Ing. Architekt Jan Cremers

Full professor for Building Technology and Integrated Architecture at the Faculty of Architecture and Design at Hochschule für Technik Stuttgart, former lecturer at Technische Universität München, Faculty of Architecture.

First Studiendekan (head of course) for the new Bachelor course KlimaEngineering at HFT Stuttgart

Visiting Professor at Cracow University of Technology (CUT), Poland and Kyoto Institute of Technology (K.I.T), Japan in 2014

Member of the newly found "Baden-Württemberg Center of Applied Research" (BW-CAR)

Author and co-author of several books, for example: Construction Manual for Polymers + Membranes and Building Openings Construction Manual: Windows, Vents and Exterior Doors, both published by Birkhäuser/DETAIL, Munich, Germany

Many national and international scientific publications.

Consulting work for Solar Next AG, Hightex GmbH and others.

Member of many scientific committees of international conferences, Member of the Association of German Architects – Bund Deutscher Architekten (BDA), member of 'Bayerische Architektenkammer' (Bavarian chamber of architects); member of several competition juries, national and international; reviewer for different international journals, e.g. 'Solar Energy', 'Journal of Facade Design and Engineering (JFDE)'.